The Academy of Political Science, founded in 1880, is composed of men and women interested in political, economic and social questions. The annual dues are $5. Members receive without further payment the current issues of the Political Science Quarterly and the Proceedings, and are entitled to admission to all meetings, lectures and receptions under the auspices of the Academy.

Communications regarding the Academy should be addressed to the Secretary of the Academy of Political Science, Kent Hall, Columbia University, or to Miss Emma S. Lake, Assistant to the President of the Academy, Kent Hall, Columbia University.

THE POLITICAL SCIENCE QUARTERLY

The Quarterly, published for the Academy, is under the editorial control of the Faculty of Political Science of Columbia University, and is devoted to the historical, statistical and comparative study of politics, economics and public law.

Its list of contributors includes university and college teachers, politicians, lawyers, journalists and business men in all parts of the United States, and European professors and publicists. It follows the most important movements of foreign politics but devotes chief attention to questions of present interest in the United States. On such questions its attitude is nonpartisan. Every article is signed; and every article, including those of the editors, expresses simply the personal view of the writer. Each issue contains careful book reviews by specialists, and in March, June and December large numbers of recent publications are characterized in brief book notes. In September is printed a valuable record of political events throughout the world.

Communications in reference to articles, book reviews and exchanges should be addressed to the managing editor, Professor Henry Raymond Mussey, Columbia University, New York city. Intending contributors are requested to retain copies of articles submitted, as the editors disclaim responsibility for the safety of manuscripts. If accompanied by stamps, articles not found available will be returned. Members of the Academy receive the Political Science Quarterly without further payment.

Subscriptions should be forwarded and all business communications addressed to THE ACADEMY OF POLITICAL SCIENCE, Kent Hall, Columbia University, N. Y.

Yearly subscription, including Supplement, five dollars; single number, not including Supplement, one dollar. Supplement containing Record of Political Events, one dollar. Back numbers and bound volumes can be obtained from the publishers.
